Dedication

JOHN F. KENNEDY, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Because you are a man of action seeking light in the company of those who know,
Because you are sincerely dedicated to the cause of world freedom, Because you believe that a just and lasting peace cannot be established with weapons only,

Because you consider human dignity superior to the State,
But most of all because you believe in God,
We admire and dedicate VICTORIA 1962 to you.

The years of high school tallization in the life of a process which needs the wisdom of the Church in and the firm hand of the Church are truly a period of crysany individual, and this is supervision and age-old molding the intellect in forming the will.

"Our goal as catechists is to re-emphasize faith as an encounter with Christ in the Church so that once more it will have the quality of the 'Good News of Salvation' so vivid in the first days of the Church and belonging to it by its very nature."

COURAGE!

GLORY!

This is our last year. Let us strive resolutely in the light of knowledge and truth, under the sound direction of Catholic teachings, assisted by our holy patrons to complete the foundations of our education; then with a broader vision, a keener sense of the challenge of our age, we will step forward with courage . . . knowing that we shall still suffer many a defeat until we reach . . . glory!

"Until truth gives light to a man's mind, his heart is immobilized more effectively than the feet of a man in the pitch blackness of a strange place. Unless the mind of man is nourished on truth, his heart is shrunken and starved. Only truth is light for the eyes, and goal for the heart!"

"Today it can be said, without fear of contradiction, that it is no longer a matter of choice for Catholics to read our own church-sponsored newspapers and magazines, but a matter of obligation. The obligation follows from the fact that it is only in reading these Catholic publications that one can hope to know the mind of the Church and be sufficiently instructed to follow with a safe conscience the law of God." "The sincere application of one's powers to achieving excellence in music is a practice of the virtue of art. Ideals of perfection rise ever higher as each new success is attained. Such practice can lead to a keener sensitiveness to beauty in any of its forms, to a surer judgment of truth and goodness, and the habit of turning away from what is base and unworthy."
